

Aspria are fit for business thanks to ramsac ramsac, a leading IT solutions consultancy, announced that it has been selected by Aspria, the European health, sports and leisure club specialists, to manage the IT infrastructure of its five premium private members clubs in Berlin, Hamburg and Brussels. ramsac will strategically manage and support the IT operations of all five European clubs, including providing support for internet, email, data, reservations and membership card technology. They will oversee the installation of a European wide network, which will allow Aspria to seamlessly integrate and communicate with each regional centre, enabling shared access. Tel: 01962 888100