■ SURREY-based IT solutions consultancy ramsac has announced that following a successful year of growth it has appointed three new members of staff. Nina Morley has been appointed to the account management team, Matt Shepherd as a support consultant and Karl Beales as a network consultant.

As an experienced customer support administrator, Nina will use her knowledge to provide account support to a number of key ramsac customers.

With eight years of experience in the industry, Matt provides ramsac with a highly skilled and experienced support consultant.

Karl will be responsible for providing outsourced IT-managed services for a range of ramsac clients. He has worked in the IT industry since 1993.

Managing director, Robert May, said: '2006 was a great year for us and these appointments are part of our 2007 strategy to grow in size, client base, geographies and markets.'
