

9th June 2008

ramsac's new Technical Director

RAMSAC, A LEADING IT solutions consultancy, has appointed Paul Mew, pictured second from left, with the company's Board of Directors, as Technical Director. Paul will be responsible for strategic technology planning for ramsac clients and for leading product research, development and innovation for ramsac's portfolio of services. Paul joined ramsac as a Senior Technical Consultant in 2001 following a successful career in the defence sector as an IT manager and security specialist.

