IT consultancy celebrates being a triple finalist

RAMSAC, IT solutions consultancy based in Godalming has achieved finalist status in three major national business awards. The Computing Awards for Excellence; The BCS (British Computer Society) IT Industry Awards and Institute of Directors Young Director Awards 2008. For the second successive year, the managing director and co-founder of ramsac, Robert May, is acknowledged as one of the top three young directors in the country by the Institute of Directors (IoD).

He will be representing the South of England at the awards ceremony next month. The company has also been short-listed by the Computing Awards for Excellence in recognition for its ongoing work with the investment property company, Imagine Homes (www.imaginehomes.co.uk), in the Best Small Business IT Strategy 2008 category. It has been nominated as the SME

Supplier of the Year in the Organisational Excellence category of The BCS (British Computer Society) IT Industry Awards.

The awards recognised the application of IT best practice to deliver tangible benefits to their organisations and their clients.
